81st Training Wing

Mission First. People Always. America Forever.

U.S. AIR FORCE

Military and Civilian Personnel Plan

12 Sep 05

Maj Gen (S) Bill Lord
Commander

Integrity - Service - Excellence

Overview

- Assumptions
- Military Personnel
- Civilians
- Dependents
- Personnel

Assumptions

- Schools will open early October
- Housing areas are safe to occupy
- Billeting (albeit tactical) will be available for temporary use for returnees coming only to evaluate their housing

Military Personnel

- Military personnel who are currently physically present in the local area whose homes are habitable can return to their homes (For MFH, must be cleared my MSG/CC)
  - Basic Allowance for Housing will stop for those in habitable MFH
  - Recall permanent party dorm residents
  - In Place TDY per diem entitlements will terminate

Effective date is 12 Sep 05

Military Personnel

- Recall of military personnel to assess personal property
  - Member must check in with PERSCO
  - If home is habitable, then member reports for duty
  - If home is uninhabitable, then Squadron/CC may approve: new order to the safe haven location, temporary duty station or PCS
  - Recalled personnel may shelter at Thompson and Allee temporarily

Effective date of phased recall is Sep 05

Military Personnel

- On Base Personnel with uninhabitable homes
  - Have priority to move into empty base houses
  - Will be housed here at KAFB in houses, lodging, or dorms as needed and available
- Key decision points are mission of base, time-frame and psychological factors
- Once member returns to Permanent Duty Station, then member's evacuation entitlements cease

Effective date of phased recall is Sep 05

Civilians

- Civilians currently in Local Area
  - Report to work (ART/ANG ensure no dual status)
  - Duties may change as required to support new mission
    - Duties should be as close to current job as possible
    - Must consider physical abilities
  - Based on mission requirements, may elect to take annual leave, be sent TDY or voluntary placement
    - May also be granted excused absences related to Hurricane Katrina
- Key decision points are mission of base, time-frame and psychological factors

Effective Sep 05

When civilian employee reports to work, they are off admin leave status

Civilians

- Recall civilians out of local area
  - If home is habitable, then member reports for duty
  - If home is uninhabitable*, then member may be granted an excused absence, annual leave, be issued new order to the safe haven location, volunteer for temporary duty at another location, or voluntary placement
  - Key decision points are mission of base, time-frame and psychological factors

Effective Date: To Be Determined

*Uninhabitable is defined by an insurance company or other creditable source

Dependents (Military or Civilian)

- Dependents who sheltered and are still here whose homes are uninhabitable
  - Still have option to evacuate to safe haven
- Per Diem continues for evacuated families
- Installation Commander will order recall of dependents when installation and community support is deemed adequate

Effective date TBD

Information and Assistance

- Levitow/Fishbowl (228) 377-2231
  - CISD
  - Chaplain
  - Insurance Claims
  - Legal
  - Family Support
  - Personnel
  - Finance (228) 377-7479
- FEMA

81st Training Wing

Keesler Family

Kicking Katrina's Butt

2 AF
403 Wg
45 AS
85 EIS
OSI

AAFES
DeCA
MARDET
NTTU
US ARMY